Why Join the Old Southeronians' Association?

The Association is open to anyone who previously worked or is currently employed in the rail or an associated industry in the area covered by the former Southern Region.

The cost of joining is £20, or £10 if you retired before 6th April 2005 (payment by Cheque or Bank Transfer), which covers life membership that can be transferred to the member's spouse / civil partner with no additional charge if the member dies first.

The Association has an Executive Committee which coordinates its work but is divided into area branches for administrative purposes and the member has the choice of which branch to belong to.

The Association is affiliated to the British Transport Pensioners' Federation and has the following aims

- (a) To arrange meetings and social activities which will enable members to continue friendships with former colleagues, and to make new friends.
- (b) In accordance with the aims of the British Transport Pensioners' Federation
 - (i) To represent the interests of members in all matters relating to pensions, travel facilities and other concessions applicable in retirement.
 - (ii) Wherever possible to provide advice and/or help in any matter affecting the general welfare of individual members

Members are covered by the BTPF's third party insurance whilst taking part in events organised by any Branch of the Association.

The Old Southeronians Association has the following local branches:-

Croydon and South East London West Sussex Wessex **

* A recent amalgamation of Southampton, Bournemouth and West of England branches
